

What is a Neuropsychological Evaluation and How Can it Help?

1 Hour
CEU

Dr. Sherrie All

Neuropsychological testing can help health care providers, families, and individuals understand changes in thinking skills such as memory and attention, and assist with diagnosis and treatment planning. This presentation will discuss different areas of cognitive functioning, how they are assessed with testing, and the benefits of measuring cognitive health.

Speaker: Sherrie D. All, Ph.D., Licensed Clinical Neuropsychologist and Founder of the Chicago Center for Cognitive Wellness
